The Yellow Rose

THE EXPRESSION OF JOY

The path of Venus is integral to the path of the Rose Priestess and the Magdalen Temple Keeper. Her celestial body emanates the sacred rose mysteries and a magnetic pure force of Love. In essence, her body is the Harem sanctuary and mystery school for advanced alchemy and high initiations of the Lunar/Feminine and the Solar/Masculine consciousness.

Core to the mysteries of Venus are the sacred eternal wisdoms of the Womb and the holy grail legacy. The womb is symbolised by the Rose and the magnetic impulse of creation. This is depicted by the sacred geometrical star/pentagram of Venus that is made of interlacing golden spirals within a mandala/circle.

The heart of the geometry is the vitality, Pure Joy and regeneration potential. This is the essence of the Yellow Rose and her gifts.

The sacred geometry gives us a deeper insight into the energetic signature of the unity grid within the Womb and the Rose. Within it is an infinite quantum field of Christ -light encoded teachings of Sophia.

The Golden Rose teachings have gifted us with such rich beauty and high magic and as part of this becoming we have received the golden Ankh through a sequence of Light activations.

The Golden Ankh, through your Sadhana and awareness, is opening and blossoming into an active spiritual power tool, holy unto 'thy -self'. The sacred Glyph of the Golden Rose has now been activated through YOU Divine Priestess.

The next level of attainment will be sanctified within the Yellow Rose Temple. The yellow Rose is a medicine of pure Joy, abundance and vision and is a vital aspect to embody to achieve higher levels of revelation and integration.

The sacred flames of your life -force is ready to take the step of sacred exchange, regeneration and healing.

“My womb is blossoming into a rose. Frondens
germinis in utero
meo in rosa est.”

— Goddess Transmission

BECOMING WHOLE THROUGH THE SACRED TRINITY

The goddess transmission is a living expression of the Divine Mother Sophia . These frequencies commune and guide codes of reactivation and divine remembrance of the soul's essence, truth and sacredness. These frequencies are an over-lighting magnetic impulse of Divine wisdom that brings forth cosmic dimensions and the language of light, as seeds and prisms from the Great Rose Spirit, source. The transmissions are directed toward the oversoul level of awareness. Imbuing, weaving and percolating codes of universal truth and power for the oversoul group cluster.

As part of the Rose legacy the multi-dimensional Goddess transmission plays a key role as the Harem, the inner womb sanctum. This is where the light conception and birthing of new sacred intentions, teachings and High tantric initiatory practices are created and mastered. The Rose council, who govern the Venus Rose path, are Magdalene's who form the bloodline of the Sophia- Christ lineage.

High Priestess Priestess Initiate

They are ascended masters, angelic beings and Goddesses whose destinies are to guide, mentor, protect and transmit the magical alchemy of the Rose and its teachings. The mystical Rose council have walked upon the earth within different timelines, dimensions and timeframes. Anchoring and grounding through them key codes of Unity on their paths of enlightenment.

The lineage is anchored in feminine mysteries and guided by Venus and her transformative path of love in connection to the Earth, the Moon, sun and the stars. The artistry and high- knowledge that Venus emulates through her celestial body is transmitted by her pure soul presence. This pure presence is within the unity field of the Rose Mandala which is a platform of wisdom teachings.

The Star Goddess transmission is a powerful channelled gift from the unified field of the Yellow Rose with Hathor. The Goddess transmission contains specific crystalline templates that will reactivate the empowered wisdom of the three Magdalene's, the High-Priestess, Priestess and the initiate. This sacred trinity will serve as a template, guide and source of gnosis for healing and medicine.

The initiate is the path of consciously choosing to live from the highest truth and awareness. The initiate is the aspect of self that shifts from a specific perspective and comes into a new relationship with self through the ascension process. The initiate embarks on a life that is sacred and whole.

The Priestess demonstrates "doing Goddess' will on earth through her." The Priestess has passed through the initiatory foundations and continues her path of healing and dedication to her connection to spirit. She is a pure conduit of the High-Priestess and Goddess, a rainbow bridge.

The High- Priestess demonstrates pure receptivity, openness and intuition. She is an eternal feminine doorway to creation and the great Seer' of Truth. The High Priestess is identified with the Shakti/Shekhinah, the female indwelling presence of the divine. She embodies pure love and is the finest expression of the feminine nature. She is the all-knowing nature of life.

Blossom Bud Stalk/roots

HATHOR HET-HERU

The Hathor Star nation are benevolent, powerful and graceful beings who are guiding the ascension of creation. They are known as birth Goddesses and Hathor in their Egyptian/Kemet timeline. The Star Mother Goddess and queen of heaven. Originally called Het-Heru "the house (or Womb) later Hat-Hor ( house or womb) of Horus. Hathor is the element of the divine feminine who brought forth in primeval time herself, never having been created. She was known as the star womb and soul heart that birthed all Gods and Goddesses including Sophia. This signature of the Hathor's is of harmonics and high vibrational light.

STAR GODDESS TRANSMIS-

The transmission you will receive through the yellow rose will reactivate dormant codes of light, joy and abundance to support the inner healing journey. Through the transmission you will embody the trinity of the holy grail which is an advanced healing modality/template used in the temples of Isis and Venus.

Through attunement, invocation and by expanding your awareness you can perceive, sense and experience the Rose Mandala. Almost like an etheric temple, city of light or being. The trinity of the holy grail is a triad and threefold flames of the Goddess specific to the Rose Priestess path. These aspects, deities and expressions are The High Priestess, Priestess and Initiate which are mentioned on the previous page. These three aspects represent a threefold flame of wisdom, love and power within the womb.

Each expression supports the path of love and within the Yellow rose we are focusing up the illumination of the initiate.

Hathor along with our Mystical Rose Guides, supports our temple journey by birthing the essence of the Three Marys through her Womb. Our powerful wisdom keeper, mentors and protectors Mary Magdalene, Mary Auset, Mother Mary and Jeshua.

HEALING WITH THE ROSES

The Rose Mandala is a key principle within the quantum Rose healing methodology. The Methodology originated from Venus within the lineage of the Rose and is an ancient healing art Incorporating tantric practices and initiations. In essence the temple teachings are of harnessing the power and unity of the sexual and sensual energies. The essential purpose is to distil the magnetic force within so as to strengthen the body of light (KA) and to alchemise and move energy within you.

The Rose Mandala contains sequences and series of magical teachings that comprise of light intelligent prisms. Each prism has a specific healing trajectory, quality, principle and mission. They correspond to a specific rose path of remembrance and exaltation of the healer within.

The foundation of the Rose Mandala is a delicate and nourishing platform that can be seen as constellations of stars and pathways that make up a circulatory system or womb map. The intelligence of the methods and exercises are directed to a specific ceremonial layer, esoteric gifts and souls' attributes. It is like the Venus geometry symbol which is a feminine multi-layered formation that is made of petals to be unveiled.

The womb is the interface and gateway between the soul/spirit, the body and its wisdom's. The nectar created through the magnetic and radiant alchemical forces are of pure love and beauty. The womb is a sanctuary, a chalice to gestate and birth new life. It is a place for blissful sacred exchange. A garden of transformation and rich creative impulse. It is a place to percolate new inspiration, passions and to manifest miraculous healing medicine and frequencies that are abundant with joy.

There is the distinct synthesis between the body of the Womb, Venus, her rose teachings and the Magdalene lineage. They are all rooted in the feminine mysteries and the light of oneness. With the same intentional energy and purpose to create and birth our New Earth.

YELLOW TEMPLE PRACTICES

Initiates will attune to the healing frequencies and medicine of the Rose once the glyph is activated on the Full Moon. The formation we are receiving is of self- healing and becoming a healer. The formation within the temple is as follows-

1: Activate within your healing energy- within the saturation chamber.

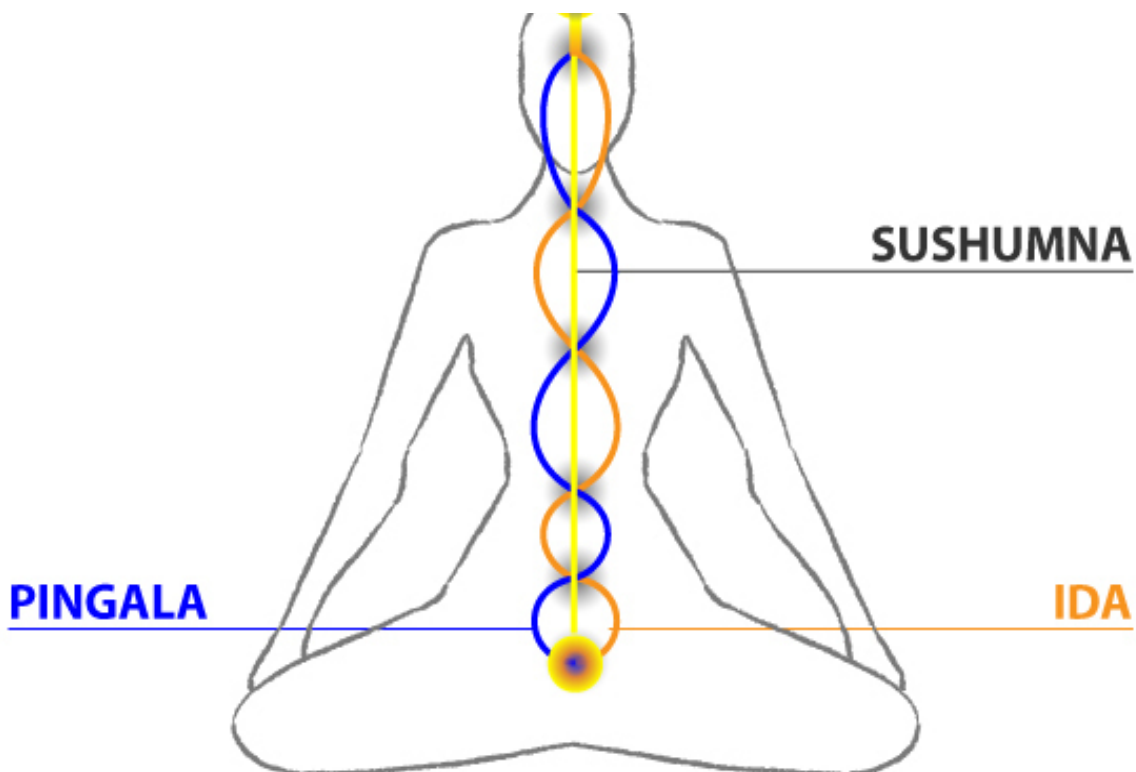

2: Self practices - yoga tantra put it into practice. This is also a teaching tool that you will share with another or in circle.

3: Star Goddess Transmission

4: Affirmation

5: Imbolc Rose Ceremony available on the 3rd February.

THIS FIGURE SHOWS THE TANTRIKA DEPICTION OF THE TRINITY SERPENT WITHIN.

The Yellow Rose Glyph

The Glyph is a key expression of pure joy and opener to the eternal ocean of unconditional love that resides within. As part of this temple, you will begin a journey of healing with the Roses within the platform of the Rose Mandala. This is a journey of healing and exchange with another and the glyph.

Ritual Full Moon Ceremony~ On the Leo Full Moon practice the lunar healing ritual on the following page to activate the 7th Glyph.

ROSE MOON HEALING FULL MOON RITUAL

Abundance Moon Ritual & Glyph Activation

Drawing Down the Moon is a powerful priestess ceremonial ritual to conjure the deep feminine codes of abundance, wisdom and transformative power. We will bring forth the Moon's energy and light for healing and awakening the flow within the Rose within.

Read the exercise beforehand.

What you will need~

Mirror- as large as possible

1 candle or candles (I personally placed a circle of tea lights all around me but please be careful.)

Roses, Yellow ideally

Crystals including your master crystal.

A prayer and/or an intention for healing

Body oil or balm

Create a place/sanctuary that is private and where you will not be disturb. Place your mirror where you can view your whole body. Do not hold the mirror as you need to be fully relaxed and present. Set out all of your temple pieces, roses, scent, candles and ensure that your sanctuary is warm.

1~ Have a candle lit, rose petal bath. Whilst in the bath invite a cleansing of all your bodies for your highest good. Then attune to the waters and your crystalline nature.

2~Once complete and dry go to your sanctuary. Sit naked in front of the mirror and surround yourself with the roses, your crystals and light-the candle safely. Ensure you can see yourself in the reflection of the mirror.

3~ Once seated recite your prayer and close your eyes.

4~Connect, ground and cast a supreme circle of protection. Invoke the benevolent spirit of the Moon Goddess ISIS and state your intention to work with the celestial energies and force in service to the greater good.

5~ Be still and open to your inner universe. Connect to subtle frequencies and sounds of the Moon and visualise a Silvery yellow light forming above your head into the shape of the Moon.

6~ Visualise, perceive or be intent the opening of a radiant yellow Rose in your womb. Breathe in through the nose out through the mouth.

7~Open your eyes to the illumination of the full Moon rays, real or intended. Imagine the Silvery yellow light above the head descending down into the body, transforming the womb rose into a Chalice. Feel the lunar and yellow rose light filling your chalice fully. Be here for as long as you wish. You will know when to complete.

8~ Open your eyes if they are closed and look at your naked form. Love her and all that arises. Breathe in through the nose and out through the mouth. If you feel to, place the balm or oil all over your sacred body. Be with yourself for as long as needed. Keep returning to the breath and gratitude.

9~Finally, bring your awareness to your Anus/Root chakra. Sense, perceive, visualise or intend the Glyph and place it into the Anus Root flower.

On completion be still and receive, integrate and honour your work and the wisdom of the Celestial Moon Goddess. Three times recite the mantra I Love you, then followed by your name, I love you, I love you. Slowly come out of the ritual.

Creative writing, the soul tantra yoga and sound is a great way to integrate.

“In praise of the hundred-petaled rose

This one, I think, the golden sun has colored with its own rising or has wished to be one of its own rays.
But well-known as Cypriot’s hundred-petaled rose,
into it all the blood of Venus has entirely flowed.

This is the star of flowers, this is the nourishing Lucifer over the fields, its fragrance and hue merit the honor of heaven..”
