THE VIOLET ROSE

The Violet Rose is the Mystical and embodied path of divine gnosis. It holds the codes of the Royal lineage or crystalline bloodline bringing forth the most ancient knowledge of the Stars. The Violet Rose ushers in the Grail Mysteries through its ancient delicate power of sacred sight

The violet Rose brings forth not only the magic but the awakening of the Starlight within our blueprint. The three Marys come to guide in this temple and activate the teachings of sacred trinity and the holy grail centres within the body. Specific to this temple is the power of healing through awakening the Holy Grail Centre of the Mind, cleaning amnesia and passing into the liminal and spiritual worlds of the 'Seers Sight'.

The Rose is Love. It symbolises the Great Mother body's as a temple. An example of a living grail centre is the Isle of Avalon, where she resides vitality within the lands, ley lines, as the magical Tor and the Sacred Red and White waters of life. The intricate natures, texture, thorns and scent of a Rose truly the mystical and feminine way of our time. Offering erotic and pure creative innocence to bring us home through sacred union.

The pristine Holy Rose Garden is said to be the original Garden of Eden and the Kingdom of heaven within. There is a prophecy that shares; "The Mystical Rose Garden will once again flourish when the Queen of Heaven descends into the lush and vital petals of its bounty".

The Rose speaks a thousand prayers, whispers the silent song of the Womb and sings the sacred passion of the Female, as she Remembers her Creative sexual Forces.

The RosePath is of Full empowered Blossoming of thyself through Devotion, Divine remembrance and Sacred Union. It is a legacy of Star Light that is within each One.

The Violet Rose has direct connection with the Divine Vision, vision of the Akasha, the higher-senses and the liminal realms of our potential.

GRAIL VISION

OPENING TO LOVE

The Rose teachings are all encompassing and fully whole and complete quantum systems. A core aspect of the lineage is the Grail lineage and the Eden Mythos that are laden with the magic and mysteries of the Violet Rose.

Essentially, it is a specific journey of intimate and embodied feminine healing and an invitation to activate the holy bloodline of Christ within through the three-folded flame of Love-Wisdom and Power. It is in the Mayan or Native Indian traditions, 'Walking the Beauty way'.

The Violet Rose teachings align, awaken and activate the Womb mysteries, touching on the deepest and most ancient way of Love, Alchemy and Devotion to the One. returning the Holy Grail Mysteries through the body and the Vision of Woman.

The Spiritual practices open and unveil the light, petal by petal, softly healing, soothing and clearing away that which does not serve.

It is a positive point of connect, to remember, the Rose is the sacred flower of Venus (pure Love consciousness).

She holds and magnetises the highest Octaves of Unconditional Love and the creative StarFire of the Magdalene Flame and Order.

The Rose is the Holy Grail and she resides within our Womb Blood, Sacred fluids and with our Grail Centres which we will begin to immerse into more fully upon the Magdalene Keepers Path .

These Core Centres contain the highest alchemy of our ancient crystalline blueprint and pristine codes of life. As I mentioned, in the physical they flow within our blood, DNA and Genome, (a genetic material of an organism).

The Grail Centres, The Womb- Heart and Mind are doorways of portals that sensitively weave and thread together to create the foundation for the Feminine Mysteries.

Their interconnected trinity nature is key to the activation of the Grail frequencies of the Christ -Sophia consciousness, that in essence, is the light that dwells within our Wombs.

*“Your voice, perceived through your sacred Sight, is a gift of true light, a gift of the true

Return of Sophia

Daleth, is a Hebrew word and it comes through the mystery's teachings of the Tree of Life and the mystical path of the Essenes. It means Doorway and in essence it is the Doorway to Eden and can be represented as a downward facing triangle. It is the feminine depiction or aspect within the 6-pointed star. Representing the Lunar and divine feminine energies of magnetism, earth and the sacred Grail Chalice. The Holy Grail Centre of the Womb, Heart and Mind are cauldrons to create magic and hold secret of The Sacred Feminine Mysteries. The Daleth has its place in the Womb, the most powerful portal of creation, of life and death.

The body is a Daleth, and as Women we hold the holiest doorway into the mystical and mysterious layers of life. The womb has the capacity to self-Initiate Women back into being through this doorway, awakening Rose within and aligning our being to the Divine Mother.

The whole body can be likened to a portal, the eyes, mouth, yoni and the skin are all receptive and giving. The energies that flow through the body is Life-Force, Daath or creative power. As part of the rise of Sophia we are experiencing great changes to the creative flow of energy within our body temples and within Mother Earth.

The Daleth has been brought to us through the Violet Rose, through the guardianship of the triple Marys, the Grail Rose Keepers of the Mystical lore's of One.

They Bring forth the sacred wisdom and activation of the Grail Vision through the Violet Rose Glyph and teachings of the Starseed Blueprint Rites and Mystical Star Activation. The Love of the Great Venus Rose Temple will guide us through our Maidan Seal of honour and through the activation. The Glyph contains the blessings of a thousand roses and each time you connect it will bring miraculous healing and creative insight.

VIBRATIONAL Trinity Mysteries

The language of vibration and energy is a key focus within the Violet Rose temple. We are becoming aware of the light, sound and ratios expressed within the geometric form of our being and body. More specifically we are exploring the essence and spiritual lore of sacred trinity and its mysteries.

Numbers and symbols have a universal vibrational essence and energetic signatures that form its gifts within nature within and around us.

When I asked about the frequencies of sacred trinity or the number 3 specific to our path, I received Birth. Other attributes include creation, fertility, portal, feminine mysteries and fire. The concept of the trinity is fundamental in nature and creation and we see the trinity mirrored in all the mystery teachings of the ancients. The Mystery school is a manifestation of the infrastructure of the feminine universal principles, literally the temples are built on the sacred trinity and seed of life geometrics.

Trinity and the number 3 are regarded as the Goddess -head as it is the expression of the beginning, the middle and the end. Or in the Christain lineage Father, Son and holy spirit. It can also be perceived as the self in sacred union with another and through this organic sacred marriage or union there is a birth or re-birth of life through this joining. Symbolically it is the feminine foundation of creation and it is the creative force that holds the Feminine Christ/Christo/Crystalline consciousness and blueprint of the Divine Mother.

TRIPLE GODDESS

Since ancient times the concept of the Great Goddess was seen as a trinity, and from this trinity there were subsequent trinites born.

The triple Goddess is the expression of the three-folded flame of Love-Wisdom-Power. The Trinity is embodied through the serpentine energies of Life-force that dwell within each woman as Birth, life and Death.

The triple Goddess is an invitation to awaken as we transition through the womb mysteries. The womb mysteries are the magical codes of mystery that lie within.

The Triple Goddess is a deity or deity archetype revered in many Neopagan religious and spiritual traditions. The Triple Goddess is viewed as a triunity of three distinct aspects or figures united in one being.

These three figures or aspects are often described as the Maiden, the Mother, and the Crone, each of which symbolises both a specific stage in the female life cycle and a phase of the Moon, and often rules one of the realms of heavens, earth, and underworld. Isis of Wicca, her masculine consort is the Horned God.

The Goddess in her many forms such as Diana, Morgan Le Fey, Mary Magdalene and Kali to name a few. All have ascended upon earth and embody the full potential of the triple Moon Goddess.

We can not only invoke the essence of the trinity within our very being but we can also call on the benevolent guidance or consort to support our transitions and initiations.

In essence, the three energies are states of being or levels of consciousness that we can embody. They act as guides and keepers upon our healing journey of Self Love and home

The triple Goddess is the original knowledge that has been rooted in more recent gnosis transmission upon Gaia. Through the various teachings such as the tree of life to the Grail mysteries, we see the formation of the Triple Goddess of the Holy trinity being expressed.

An example of this, in the Rose Lineage, is the trinity between Isis, Osiris and Horus and more recently Mary Magdalene, Jesus and Sarah Tamar.

The Maiden aspect aligns with the crescent-to-waxing phase of the Moon, and represents the youthful phase of a woman's life. This is the time of growth, reflected by the waxing of the Moon as it moves toward fullness. In the cycles of Nature, the Maiden is associated with dawn, sunrise, and the Spring season.

The Maiden represents beauty, fresh potential and new life. In human beings, she is associated with the qualities of innocence, youth, self-confidence, intelligence and independence, and with activities relating to exploration, discovery, self-expression, and creativity. Wiccans may worship the Maiden in the form of the Greek goddesses Persephone and Artemis, the Celtic Rhiannon, and/or the Nordic Freya, among others.

Moon Phase

At the Full Moon, the Maiden becomes the Mother, giving birth to all of the abundance on Earth. She is associated with midday, and her season is Summer, the lushest time of year, with forests and fields flourishing and young animals growing into maturity. In the human realm, she is associated with nurturing, responsibility, adulthood and the fullness of life.

As the giver of life, she is the aspect most associated with manifestation. In fact, the Mother is considered by many Wiccans to be the most powerful of the Goddess' three aspects, and it was a "Mother Goddess" archetype that inspired Gerald Gardner's vision of the divine feminine. Goddesses who represent the Mother at many Wiccan altars include the Greek Demeter and Selene, the Roman Ceres, and the Celtic Danu and Badb.

She is Queen of the shades and shares her wisdom and deep compassion to hold the truth for those who will travel the depths of the subconscious worlds of within. Guiding the awakening of the 7- gateways to heaven.

The Keeper of the Great Rose Spirit.

Moon Phase

As the Moon wanes and the darkness of the night sky grows, the Crone steps into her power. Called the "Hag" in earlier iterations of the Triple Goddess, she represents the post-childbearing years of life, and is associated with Autumn and Winter, sunset and night, and the winding down and ending of the growing season. The Crone is the wise elder aspect of the Goddess, and governs aging and endings, death and rebirth, and past lives, as well as transformations, visions, prophecy, and guidance.

Although feared as an archetype for millennia, she is the one who reminds us that death is part of the life cycle, just as the Moon's dark phase precedes the New Moon. The Crone is often represented by goddesses associated with death and the underworld, such as the Greek Hecate, the Russian Baba Yaga, and the Celtic Morrigan and Cailleach Bear.

The Triple Goddess is indeed a diverse and complex expression of the divine feminine. It provides a powerful and continual opportunity to know they self and to evolve through the Souls Light and Feminine way.

STAR ROSE GRAIL TEMPLE

The Grail centre of the mind is associated with High Priestess the Visionary, Seer and prophetes. It is the sacred sight of our inner reality. The truth of our reality not that which is attached to our belief, constructus or neurological pathway limited to the 3rd dimensional paradigm (Ego.)

This Grail gateway is associated with the Star Rose. The Star Rose is the celestial manifestation of the Kundalini shakti energies of Creation. We will be delving into the 3 facets or petals, that correlate with the three Grail centres of the body. The Heart Grail centre is associated with the Star Flower and the Womb Grail centre the Earth Rose.

The mind/brain is a delicate, powerful and complex body system. Intricately woven with neurotransmitters, pathways of creative intellinet, cognitive, emotional and spiritual gnosis that are all housed with the mind/brain.

The mind/brain is both Lunar and Solar, Conscious, unconscious, logical mystical, Right brain (feminine, Left brain (Masculine). It is not a specific science that one half is male and the other female but they interlink, unite and create together.

The limbic system is a set of structures in the brain that deal with emotions and memory and senses. It is composed of four main parts: such as the hypothalamus, the amygdala and cerebellum, I would also like to bring our awareness to the pineal gland.

The pineal gland tiny organ, about the size of a grain of rice, buried deep in the center of the brain. Humans have long attributed great significance to it, believing it possesses the secret to deep insights and spiritual enlightenment. The ancient Greek physician Galen saw it as the regulator of “psychic pneuma.” Philosopher Rene Descartes called the the pineal gland “the seat of the soul.” Eastern cultures also attributed great spiritual significance to it, associating it with the “third eye” or sixth chakra, which is the energy center of spiritual insight and inspiration. Even though this significant organ has everyday rituals such as regulating hormones and sleep patterns. It holds the keys to activating this gateway and bridging heaven and earth, seen and unseen.

The Amygdala is almond shaped and looks like the visca pi-sces and contains the sacred geometry of Sacred Union. It is where the emotions are given meaning, remembered, and attached to associations and responses to them. It is associated with spiritual, and mystical states, visions, dreaming, astral projection, near death and out-of-body experience. As the name suggests it is the ‘Great Soul Seer’ of the Magdalene or the portal to the Magdalene/Magdala consciousnesses. It is a direct ‘Doorway’ into the Divine Womb or into the Sacred Grail Mysteries.

The cerebellum is the feminine part of the brain, the feeling aspect and is developed first in utero at around 6 months. It is the throne of Cosmic consciousness. It receives information from the sensory systems and the spinal cord and has a direct relationship with the womb. It is connected to the pineal gland and the Amygdala that are also embedded in the primal feminine way. The cerebellum receives the mystical, the shamanic, light language and the Akasha, the keys and rose codes that are contained within the sacred Womb. The cerebellum is called the ‘Golden Disc’ or ‘the Gateway to God’. The cerebellum is deeply embedded in nature, cycles and the Cerebrum (male aspect) the logical and consensory reality.

Within this Temple gateway, we can perceive the magical Union of the Masculine and Feminine, reflected, embodied and expressed within the Seat of the Mind.

Kali Tantra yantra

In Tantric traditions and within the Magdalene Rose lineage the Triangle, more specifically the downward facing triangle, is the image of Primordial Life. Below is the Kali Tantric Yantra which is a sacred mandala representing the vulva. Yoni and the gateway to heaven. The Triangle is recognised as a sign of the ancient triple Goddess Virgin - Mother- Crone. Each point of the triangle corresponding to energies of the universe and to the feminine trinity held within the Rose teachings .

VIOLET ROSE GLYPH

The Violet Rose Glyph holds the wisdom keys to the teachings and transformative powers of the mystical wisdom and sacred sight through the primordial triangle of life. The Essence of the Glyph is held with the three petals of the original holy trinity, represented by the yoni symbol/glyph the holy doorway or gateway.

The Glyph will be guided and enhance the connection between the Root and sacral chakra and the crown and third eye chakras. It opens into the mysteries of the Great Rose Mother through the union of Wisdom and soul within the Mind/Grail Centre. The Glyph is to be used with soft presence to harness its ancient wisdom of the Stars and Gaia.

A glyph of coming home through the principles of sacred union of the Body and Soul. Capturing the vision of the Grail.

The glyph is a grounding force that aids in earthing into the body, heart and mind through the trinity of Fire, Birth and Life.
